Membership Package

Who Are We?

We are Volunteer Sudbury/Bénévolat Sudbury: a local non-profit volunteer resource centre that acts as a link between volunteers and community organizations that rely on volunteers to do the wonderful work that they do.

We aim to provide community members with meaningful volunteer experiences that help them reach their personal goals, make new friends, and give back to the community. Our goal is simple - we want to increase community involvement and create meaningful volunteer experiences that contribute to building a stronger community.

Volunteer/Bénévolat Sudbury Services

Online Database

As an organization, we pride ourselves on offering modern ways for our members to promote opportunities to potential volunteers. Our online database is equipped to match volunteers directly to positions like yours! You can post available positions, track hours, and reach out to volunteers all in the same place!

Organizational Training

We offer virtual Professional Development opportunities for our member organizations! Training participants receive a certificate for completion to add to their portfolio! Take advantage of training topics such as: Empathy, Volunteer Recognition, Sensitivity, Accessibility, and more!

*In person training will resume when it is safe to do so

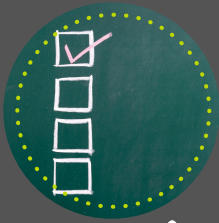

Resource Centre

As a member, you have access to our knowledgeable staff and networks, including help and advice for volunteer engagement management! Use us as a resource, and utilize our online resource centre anytime through our website. Whether you have been in the field for over 20 years, or are just beginning, we are here to help!

Membership Eligibility

To become a member at any of our three membership tiers, your organization must meet at least two of the following criteria.

You should:

- ☐ Have a mission relating to helping others in the community, and accept volunteers to complete work that is meaningful, and would not normally be done by a paid employee, or;
- ☐ Be a registered charity with the CRA, or;
- ☐ Be governed by a Board of Directors, whether formal or informal, or;
- ☐ Host an event that fundraises for a charitable cause, or;
- ☐ Represent a private organization that is running or sponsoring an event that will benefit the community

Additionally, your organization must operate within the City of Greater Sudbury or the region of Northeastern Ontario.

Our Membership Tiers

We have three different membership tiers, so you can find the one that works best for your organization! A more detailed breakdown can be seen on the next page.
